

Adam Roffman

Vice President, Risk Management at Toll Brothers, Inc.

Adam is Vice President of Risk Management at Toll Brothers, Inc, the nation's largest luxury homebuilder.

He has over 25 years experience in the Property & Casualty field, including over 10 years as a broker with the Willis Group. While working at Willis, he had responsibility for the design, marketing and maintenance of insurance programs for Fortune 1000 clients in fields that included Construction, Healthcare, Technology and International business. Adam was also the Director of Risk Management at the Philadelphia Insurance Companies where he was responsible for establishing the companies first Risk Management department and was instrumental in the creation of their Enterprise Risk Management and Business Continuity programs.

At Toll Brothers he is responsible for leading the companies Risk Management and Safety initiatives, working in close partnership with Finance, Legal, IT and Operations on a daily basis. He sits on the Board of Toll's wholly owned captive insurance company and is also responsible for the captive's day to day operations. In addition to designing & maintaining all corporate insurance programs, Adam's team is also responsible for setting risk guidelines for all subcontractor agreements, joint ventures & land development deals as well as establishing risk management parameters for 'risky endeavors' brought by the sales communities.

Adam received his Bachelor of Business Administration from Temple University's School of Business and Management, graduating with a dual degree in Risk Management & Insurance and Finance.

He is a member of RIMS, the Philadelphia Area Risk Management Association (PARMA), and is rotating Chairman of the Leading Builders of America (LBA) Risk Management Council.