

Bio – Mark Gaudiosi, CFO at goPuff

Mark Gaudiosi is the Chief Financial Officer at goPuff, the fastest growing digital convenience retailer, delivering thousands of products – including ice cream, candy, beverages, cleaning products, diapers, pet goods, and in some markets, beer, wine and spirits – to customers directly from centrally located facilities. goPuff is currently operating in over 100 U.S. locations and employs over 1,500 employees. At goPuff, Mark currently oversees Accounting, Corporate Finance, Treasury, and Operational Forecasting.

Before goPuff, Mark ran Accounting and Finance organizations for large retail and technology corporations including eBay Enterprise (now Radial), Aramark, and Wawa. Mark began his career in the startup space, building teams to successfully work through an acquisition and IPO at Zany Brainy.
