

Re: Bio for Benjamin Evans, ARM

Ben has spent over 32 years working in higher education and healthcare risk management. Ben is the Associate Vice President for Risk Management and Insurance at the University of Pennsylvania. His responsibilities include oversight of the insurance and risk management programs for the University and the University of Pennsylvania Health System. Prior to joining Penn, Ben served in similar roles at Temple University and Thomas Jefferson University. Ben also worked at Johnson and Higgins and Marsh McLennan in their healthcare unit. Ben currently serves on the boards of three Vermont -based Risk Retention Groups, two Bermuda-based Captives, and one Cayman-based Captive. He also serves on AIG's Higher Education Advisory Board, International SOS's North American Advisory Board, CHUBB's Client Advisory Board, and the board of the Insurance Society of Philadelphia. Ben holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from LaSalle University and also has his ARM (Associate in Risk Management) designation. Ben was named as a 2017 RIMS Risk Manager of the Year Honor Roll Award Recipient and is a recipient of the 2018 Theodore Roosevelt ("Teddy") Workers' Compensation Award.