

Sevé Spruill

Director, Strategic Recruiting Practices at The Hartford

Sevé Spruill is Director of Strategic Recruiting Practices for The Hartford. He was recently brought on to develop and champion innovative enterprise recruitment strategies to effectively engage leaders to attract and retain top talent and strengthen candidate pipelines. Sevé also acts as primary talent liaison with Claims & Operations Workforce Transformation Leader and Chief Diversity Officer to support executive hiring needs and provide guidance on the diverse labor market and internal talent landscape.

Mr. Spruill has 15+ years of Recruitment experience with 8 of those years in the insurance industry. He has helped establish a national, comprehensive college recruitment program to enhance diversity and manage college relations. He has been a guest speaker on college campuses and at national diversity member organization conferences speaking on specialized topics, including intergenerational relations, retention, diverse/inclusive strategic recruiting and interviewing.